LEGENDARY AMERICAN STYLE

Happiness is in the details.

Designer Hanna Sutermeister partnered with The Container Store to create a modern gentleman's space for this year's Kips Bay Decorator Show House Dallas. The striking result featured glass-front cabinets and a floating credenza suspended in recycled leather. To discover the potential of your space, start with a free design consultation.

Best Seats in the House

Now this is what an all-purpose area! Christopher Thomas got the most out of his kitchen by adding a pair of seating nooks. The bar-height stools are raised on a square of oak that's set on a platform with a raised edge, creating a space that's perfect for a quick sit-down. The nook is a great place to sit and eat, and it's also a great place to sit and work. The nook is a great place to sit and work, and it's also a great place to sit and eat.
