

1. LOS ANGELES
SCRIBE STUDIO
This modern and sophisticated master bathroom in La Cañada Flintridge, California, designed in collaboration with Denise Bosley Interiors, incorporates marble, limestone and a steel-framed shower enclosure to form a serene retreat.

2. SAN FRANCISCO
MT DEVELOPMENT
A freestanding tub set in front of a wax-coated Venetian plaster wall is the centerpiece of this room in San Francisco's Presidio Heights; various textures and a neutral color palette add depth.

3. SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA
HUMA SULAIMAN DESIGN
Redesigned to evoke the feeling of Argentina, this master bathroom in San Juan Capistrano, California, includes custom details including a black-and-white marble floor, brass accents and cabinetry with a faux finish.

4. MIAMI
EOLO A&I DESIGN
The owners of this Palmetto Bay, Florida, home requested a bathroom that was dramatic yet luxurious. Clean lines and unobstructed pathways lend a chic, compelling edge to the space's functionality and flow.

5. PALM BEACH | BROWARD
JMA INTERIOR DESIGN
This Jupiter, Florida, space was designed for a discerning client who loves color. Custom vanities in pale lilac flank either side of a custom soaking tub with a matching lilac cradle.

6. AUSTIN + SAN ANTONIO
KELLE CONTINE INTERIOR DESIGN
A dark and dramatic shower, with a peek of the hillside view, provides a sense of personal space in the master bath of an Austin home, designed in collaboration with Cornerstone Architects.

7. COLORADO
CHARLES CUNIFFE ARCHITECTS & STERLING MCDAVID
In an Aspen bathroom, a Waterworks soaking tub sits next to glass doors that open to a deck with mountain views. Calacatta Vagli marble was selected for the floors, countertops and shower bench.

8. DALLAS + FORT WORTH
FORSYTHE + HALL HOMES
The design team of this Dallas home wanted to promote a light and airy aesthetic in the master bath. In front of a large floor-to-ceiling window is a freestanding cast-iron tub with bronze fixtures.

9. NEW YORK
STELLE LOMONT ROUHANI ARCHITECTS
This Long Island, New York, bathroom is an extension of the master bedroom. Materials are a study in restraint with sand-colored stone in various textures; a soaking tub sits on an elevated stone plinth.

10. PACIFIC NORTHWEST
MICHELLE DIRKSE INTERIOR DESIGN
In Bellevue, Washington, this bathroom remodel combines classic touches with modern conveniences, such as hidden storage behind Roborn medicine cabinets with added storage in the custom walnut surround.

11. CHICAGO
JAMESTHOMAS INTERIORS
The master bath of this Glencoe, Illinois, residence was inspired by the clients' love of vintage bathrooms. Custom details including marble flooring, a settee and light fixtures add to the uniqueness of this space.

13. HOUSTON
LAUREN HASKETT FINE DESIGN
A reclaimed European stone sink—found at a local antique store—is the anchor of this Houston powder room. Wall sconces and a small antique mirror show off the mural wallcovering.

14. ARIZONA
LISSA LEE HICKMAN
Luxurious etched marble flooring surrounds a soaking tub with a floor-mounted faucet in a Paradise Valley, Arizona, bathroom. Dramatic steel doors are emphasized as a focal point, incorporating the beauty of the surrounding landscape.
